

Addison Northwest Supervisory Union Policy

SECTION: STUDENTS

CODE: F23

TITLE: PARTICIPATION OF HOME STUDY STUDENTS IN SCHOOL PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

Policy

It is the policy of the Addison Northwest Supervisory Union and its member school boards to comply with the requirements of Act 119 of 1998 by allowing home study students to participate in courses, programs, activities, and services and use school educational materials and equipment.

The Superintendent will develop administrative procedures that comply with rules promulgated by the Vermont State Board of Education as is necessary to implement this policy.

General Guidelines for Home Study Student Participation

1. Special Services: Special education services are available to all students found eligible under criteria set forth in state and federal regulations.
2. Compliance with Procedures: All students will comply with the application and enrollment deadlines as well as all legal and policy requirements such as residency, immunization and the provision of student information as outlined in the administrative procedures. All students must abide by rules of conduct and other conditions as set forth in student and athletic handbooks, school policies and procedures.
3. Supervision of Students: School personnel are responsible for supervising students during their approved participation in school- sponsored activities. Parents of home study students must provide supervision for their children when they are at school but not participating formally in school activities.
4. Transportation: Home study students may participate in the regular school transportation arrangements to attend school programs in which they are enrolled. The school will not supply special transportation except as provided for in law.
